

Family Engagement Month Calendar of Activities

November 2017
Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 Challenge your teen to a game of chess.	2 Check out some odd-sounding movies or books from your local library.	3 Ask your student to help you plan the next family vacation.	4 Conduct mock interviews to help your teen practice for a job or college admissions interview.
5 Talk to your student about financing, budgeting, and establishing credit.	6 Dig out your high school yearbook and tell your teen how you dealt with various high school issues.	7 Work with your student to create a resume and be sure to update it regularly.	8 Find some pairs of jeans you no longer wear and recycle them into something new, like a book bag.	9 Ask your teen to teach you something.	10 Volunteer together at a homeless shelter or a hospital.	11 Monitor academic progress together in Edgenuity.
12 Create a family cookbook with all your favorite recipes.	13 Re-examine your student's homework routine to see if any changes are needed	14 Schedule a meeting with your student's school counselor to discuss their future.	15 Talk to your student about how schoolwork can apply to everyday life.	16 Talk with your student about college costs as well as scholarships, loans, and grants.	17 Read the paper and discuss current events with your teen.	18 Tour a local college, university, or technical school with your student.
19 Ask your student to teach you something new on the computer or your tablet device.	20 Plant a garden in your backyard.	21 Pop popcorn; creating different flavors by measuring and exploring various ingredients. Watch a movie and enjoy.	22 Assign them a dish to help with for Thanksgiving dinner.	23 Make a family photo album together.	24 Make holiday gifts for friends and family.	25 Ask your student to solve the following: $8 \div 2(2+2)=?$
26 Share a new word each day with your student to prepare for standardized tests.	27 Ask your student to solve the following: (World Population) / (Earth's Surface Area).	28 Look for shooting stars and constellations.	29 Make a smoothie with your favorite fruits and vegetables.	30 Encourage your student to join a school club or activity.	NOTES:	